

LIBNEWS

The official e-newsletter of BUiD's Library

ONE-STOP SOURCE

The Library's website is the one-stop source to a wide range of digital resources and services to meet the growing academic and research needs at BUiD. Users can access the platform on and off-campus. The platform is integrated with Google Scholar, providing the convenience of finding resources along with thousands of other libraries.

The website has been redesigned to provide the required information conveniently and seamlessly. In addition, a number of instructional videos are available to guide users wherever needed.

Our social media outreach is expanding, and we can be reached through several platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, and LinkedIn. The Library is posting updates and creating awareness about its resources, services, and events on a regular basis.

The Library staff is eager to support students and faculty in-person or by email, chatbot, telephone, or using any popular video conferencing tools such as MS Teams and Zoom.
