Dedication

To my unforgotten father (May Allah bless his soul in his grave), the man and leader who I am proud to inherit his traits, I dedicate this humble work for you as I will keep moving on, following your path. To my mother, my protecting angle, I dedicate this small piece of work for you to keep proud of your forever baby. To my supportive, caring and gorgeous wife, I send you my deepest love with every single letter written here, may Allah save you for me. To my coming baby boy - (Jouda); in shaa Allah. With extreme exultation to have your name here and all pride to relate your name with mine. May your healthy life is full of promising happiness and awarding endeavor.
